PARLIAMENT OPENED.

Customary Pomp Attends the Formal Function of the King.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE IN FAME.

Edward Calls the Transvaal Republic "My Colonies" and Regrets That War Continues—His Interpretation of Canal Treaty—Foreign News.

London, Jan. 16.—King Edward opened parliament Thursday with a ceremonial in all respects similar to that of last February. The procession to the house of lords was of the same character as that witnessed at the opening of the first parliament of King Edward's reign, while within the upper house were seen the same pageantry and revival of ancient forms.

After robing, King Edward and Queen Alexandra entered the house of peers and occupied their thrones, beneath a canopy, with the Prince and Princess of Wales on either side of them. The other members of the royal family were seated on chairs at the foot of the steps to the throne. The usher of the black rod, General Sir Michael Biddulph, having summoned the speaker and the members of the house of commons, his majesty read the speech from the throne.

The speech was not an important utterance. The king referred in terms of gratification to the world tour of the Prince and Princess of Wales, expressed regret at the fact that the war in South Africa was not concluded, said he trusted the decision of the sugar conference would lead to the abandonment of bounties, noted the conclusion of isthmian canal treaty, and said relations with other powers continued of a friendly character.

Contrary to expectations, the king's reference to the war in South Africa was just as indefinite as statements on the subject made in the last half dozen messages from the throne. "I regret," said his majesty, "that the war in South Africa is not yet concluded, though the course of the operations has been favorable to our arms, the area of the war largely reduced, and industries are being resumed in my new colonies. In spite of the tedious character of the campaign, my soldiers throughout have displayed a cheerfulness in the endurance of hardships incident to guerrilla warfare and a humanity, even to their own detriment, in their treatment of the enemy, which are deserving of the highest praise. Necessity for relieving those of my troops who have most felt the strain of war has afforded me the opportunity of again availing myself of the loyal and patriotic offers of my colonies, and further contingents will shortly reach South Africa from the Dominion of Canada, the commonwealths of Australia and New Zealand. The paragraph pertaining to the isthmian canal was as follows: "I have concluded with the president of the United States a treaty, the provisions of which will facilitate the construction of an interoceanic canal under guaranties that its neutrality will be maintained and it will be open to the commerce and shipping of all nations."

After announcing that "the estimates have been framed as economically as due regard for their efficiency renders possible in the special circumstances of the present exigency," the speech concluded with mentioning proposed legislation of solely domestic interest, with the exception of a bill to facilitate the sale and purchase of land in Ireland.

Their majesties then retired amid a fanfare of trumpets and attended by the same regal ceremony as accompanied their entry into the house. The crowds which lined the route from Buckingham palace to Westminster to review the procession were not nearly so large as at last opening of parliament. The king and queen both looked extremely well.

With the two central figures so easily seen and so gorgeously clad, and the brilliant escort of life guards, whose band kept constantly playing, the public was rewarded for the long, cold wait by an interesting spectacle.

So far as unrestrained public enthusiasm was concerned, it was nothing to what occurred earlier in the day, when the guards for the reinforcements left their barracks en route to South Africa. The guardsmen tramped through the dark streets of the metropolis at 6 o'clock in the morning accompanied by an uproarious crowd of civilian friends, singing songs to the accompaniment of the band. The music, however, did not drown the crying of women who clung to the necks and arms of almost every man of the contingent.

New Cure For Consumption.

Paris, Jan. 16.—At a meeting of the Paris Academy of Medicine a report was read which recounts remarkable results of a new remedy in the treatment of consumption. The newly discovered preparation is called bacilline. It is a liquid, composed of the active principles of certain plants grown in Chili and Colombia. At Ronbaix, a locality noted as a hotbed of consumption, out of 100 cases treated by hypodermic injections of bacilline 84 are reported to be on the way to recovery.

UNION DEPOT FIRE.

Exciting Time at Chicago Terminal of Pennsy and Other Roads.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Fire broke out in the ticket office of the Union station, Adams and Canal streets, and for a time threatened the destruction of the building. The smoke and flames spread so rapidly that 60 employees of the several roads which make the station their Chicago terminal had an exciting time to escape suffocation. The men were at work on annual statements in offices just above and to the rear of the ticket office, and a number escaped by jumping from a low window to a viaduct on the Adams street side of the building. Two men were helped down ladders by firemen, but no one was injured.

Over $1,000,000 worth of unstamped tickets of the Pennsylvania, Burlington, Alton, St. Paul, the Panhandle and Fort Wayne roads and the Pullman company were destroyed, but it is thought no valid tickets are missing. The station, which is the property of the Pennsylvania lines, was damaged to the extent of $15,000. The annual passenger statements of all the roads were destroyed and will be delayed two weeks.

TRAIN ROBBERY.

Seven Masked Road Agents Hold Up a Fast Express in Indian Territory.

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 16.—A south-bound Kansas City-Southern passenger train was held up half a mile north of Spiro, I. T., by seven masked men. The express and mail cars were entered. The local safe in the express car was opened, but nothing was secured from it. The robbers tried to open the through safe, but failed. Then they rifled the mail car, and it is said, secured a quantity of registered mail.

The scene of the robbery is 15 miles from Fort Smith. A report from there says United States marshals are scouring the country in search of the robbers. Three suspects, who are miners, were arrested and taken to Poteau, I. T. Railroad and express officials decline to state how much booty was secured. It is stated, however, that the robbers got away with $2,000.

Hawaiian Coinage.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The bill for the coinage of the money of Hawaii, introduced by Representative Hill (Conn.), was favorably acted on by the house committee on coinage, weights and measures. Some opposition was developed, the Democratic members urging that the silver dollars should not lose their identity as such by being recoined into subsidiary coins. The vote on the bill was 8 to 2, the Democratic members voting in the negative.

McKinley Day in New York.

Albany, Jan. 16.—Governor Odell issued a proclamation concurring in the suggestion of Governor Nash of Ohio that Wednesday, Jan. 29, the birthday of the late President McKinley, be fittingly observed by the people of the United States. Governor Odell further recommends that in the schools of the state suitable exercises be held, and that the flags be displayed on public and private buildings.

Bridge Collapsed.

Indianapolis Jan. 16.—The center span of the West Washington street bridge, crossing White river, gave way with the weight of a work train consisting of two trolley cars and four teams. Twelve workmen were precipitated into the river, but all were rescued alive. Four were injured. Two horses were drowned and two had to be killed on account of injuries.

Chewing Gum Factory Consumed.

Lima, O., Jan. 16.—A supposed incendiary fire destroyed F. J. Banta's candy and chewing-gum manufactory. A man was seen by employees of the electric-light plant nearby entering the basement with an armful of wood about half an hour before the fire. Loss $30,000 on building and contents, only partly insured.

Tragedy at a Dance.

Frankfort, Ind., Jan. 16.—Kirklin township was the scene of a bloody tragedy. Clem A. Pruitt, a young farmer, was shot to death by William Pittser, another young farmer, at Pittser's home, one mile north of Kirkline, where a dance was in progress. Pruitt, with some friends, started the trouble. Pittser was arrested.

Curry to See Alfonso Crowned.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Dr. J. L. M. Curry has been appointed special envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to represent the president at the coming of age of the king of Spain. Dr. Curry is a native of Virginia, and was formerly minister to Spain.

TO GREET THE PRINCE

Rear Admiral Evans Will Meet Henry With a Naval Squadron.

DEMONSTRATION TO BE AT NEW YORK

Distinguished Visitor to Be Received With Ceremony Appropriate to His Rank and a Manifest of True American Hospitality.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, who has been charged with the preparation and execution of the naval program at the reception of Prince Henry of Prussia, called upon Dr. Von Holleben, the German ambassador, at the embassy, and consulted him regarding the arrangements for the naval welcome to be accorded the distinguished visitors. Admiral Evans will keep in touch with the ambassadors and embassy officials, in order that he may conform his own arrangements to those of the visiting party, notice of the latter's plans being conveyed from Berlin to the embassy at Washington.

It may be stated upon authority that the Kron Prinz Wilhelm will not deviate from her course, but will bear Prince Henry directly to New York, where the naval demonstration proper will take place.

The following squadron has been assigned to Rear Admiral Evans by the navy department to welcome the prince: Flagship, the battleship Illinois; protected cruisers Olympia, San Francisco and Cincinnati, and the cruiser Hartford.

While detailed arrangements for the movements of this squadron have not yet been made, Admiral Evans states that the vessels probably will rendezvous at Tompkinsville, and possibly join the imperial yacht Hohenzollern on her way up the Atlantic coast from the West Indies, and escort her to New York.

Admiral Evans will have with him the same staff that was selected to accompany him to the Asiatic station. Captain George A. Converse, as commander of the flagship Illinois, will be his flag captain; Lieutenant Frederick L. Chapin, his flag lieutenant; Lieutenant Thomas Washington, flag secretary, and several other naval aides.

Prince Henry's Preparations.

Kiel, Jan. 16.—The imperial yacht Hohenzollern, which is to sail for the United States Saturday, is completing her preparations for the transatlantic trip. She went out to the outer fjord to test her boilers and adjust her compasses. Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia, attended by Adjutants Von Schwindt and Von Egidy and several naval officers of high rank, were present at a dinner on board the Hohenzollern to bid farewell to Admiral Count von Baudissin, the commander of the yacht, and his staff. Prince Henry left Kiel for Berlin, where he will remain ten days. The details regarding Prince Henry's landing in the United States and his movements thereafter are entirely in the hands of Secretary Hay and Dr. von Holleben, the German ambassador at Washington.

Name of Emperor's New Yacht.

New York, Jan. 16.—Emperor William has decided that the schooner yacht building at Shooters Island, in this harbor, shall be named "The Meteor," and Captain Hubert von Reubur, the naval attaché at Washington, has so advised Carey, Smith & Barber of this city, the designers of the vessel. If nothing happens the yacht will be ready to be placed in the water Feb. 20, almost a week before the launching date talked of.

New Mexico Appointments.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The president has decided to appoint Morgan O. Llewellyn surveyor general of New Mexico, to succeed the present incumbent, Mr. Vance. Mr. Llewellyn is the son of W. H. H. Llewellyn, who was lieutenant colonel in the president's regiment. The son also served with the Rough Riders. The president has also decided to appoint H. D. Bowman receiver of the general land office at Las Cruces; Mr. Leland, a brother of Cyrus Leland of Kansas, receiver at Rosewell; M. R. Otero, a distant relative of the governor and the father-in-law of Solomon Luna, the national committeeman from New Mexico, receiver at Santa Fe.

Not a British Transport.

Galveston, Jan. 16.—The shipping men of Galveston do not believe that the horses and cattle reported to have been seen on the Texas coast by Captain Peterson of the schooner Olga were from a British transport. They say that if the transport was three days out from New Orleans it would be near the Florida coast, and that should any mishap befall the transport, causing mules or horses to be lost, the carcasses would be taken to the Florida and not the Texas coast.

SERIOUS MISTAKE.

Two Forces of Colombian Regulars Fired on Each Other.

Colon, Colombia, Jan. 16.—News of a serious mistake, in which one force of government troops fought another body of government soldiers, thinking that it was composed of Colombian revolutionists, has been brought to Colon by the Colombian warship General Pinzon.

It happened in the vicinity of Dibullo, near Rio Hacha, and resulted in 18 men being killed and 63 wounded.

Captain Merritt of the General Pinzon says the vessel landed 400 men in Dibullo to drive back the insurgents. The revolutionists retreated toward Rio Hacha when the government troops advanced. It was decided to divide the government force into two bodies in order to capture the rebels. One of these met the rebels, and, after a sharp engagement, the insurgents retreated. The other body of government troops then came up, having heard the firing, and the clash followed. Thinking it was opposed by rebels, each force started firing. The fight was kept up four hours, when General Foliaco discovered the mistake and stopped the battle, which had been evenly contested.

West Virginia Miners.

Wheeling, Jan. 16.—At their convention in Huntington the West Virginia miners formulated a new scale, which the operators will be asked to sign April 1. The operators are invited to attend the joint conference of workers and operators of competitive fields at Indianapolis the last of this month. West Virginia operators have not been present at these conferences since 1887. Failing to attend the Indianapolis gathering or grant the concessions asked may precipitate the greatest strike West Virginia has ever seen, for the men are well organized, but control of the principal fields by the steel trust and railroads makes them face a complication. The scale is lower than the Ohio rate, but coal is said to be easier mined in West Virginia.

Ohio Legislature.

Columbus, O., Jan. 16.—The senate committee on McKinley memorial, of which Senator Hosea of Hamilton is chairman, presented its report, which was approved by a rising vote. Memorial services will be held in the hall of the house of representatives at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, Jan. 29, the fifty-ninth anniversary of William McKinley's birth. The Ohio senators, the congressmen, the governor and other leading men will be invited to participate in these exercises. A bill was introduced appropriating $200,000 for an Ohio exhibit at the St. Louis exposition in 1903. Adjournment was taken to Jan. 20.

An Aimless Wanderer.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Rev. Hiff of Hamilton, Ill., known throughout the middle west as an evangelist, was discovered walking aimlessly about the streets here in a dazed condition, and was taken to the Sibley hospital for treatment. According to his statements, Dr. Hiff has been away from home since the latter part of December, but his mind seems a blank as to what has happened to him during the intervening time. He is of advanced age, and his condition is such that it will be some time before he can leave the hospital.

Food Adulteration in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Adulterated vinegar and flavoring extracts and imitation butter having been found in the markets in large quantities recently, the state pure-food commission has commenced the prosecution of numerous retail dealers in an effort to stop the frauds. Civil actions against 32 dealers have been instituted before a justice of the peace. Other cases will be filed in a short time.

Philippine Tariff Bill.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The senate committee on finance considered the house Philippine tariff bill. The Republican members presented a proposition to reduce the Dingley rates of the house bill 25 per cent on goods coming to this country from the Philippines, also less the export tax charged in the Philippines. Action was postponed until Monday in order to give further time to consider the measure.

New Trial For Cortez.

Laredo, Tex., Jan. 16.—A telegram was received by the Cortez fund committee stating that the Texas court of appeals had reversed and remanded the case of Gregorio Cortez, who was tried in Gonzales for the murder of Constable Schnabel. Cortez was given 50 years by the Gonzales jury. Efforts of a posse of officers to capture him attracted wide attention.

Schley Resolution Adopted.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 16.—The house, after a spirited debate, adopted a resolution commendatory of Admiral Schley. The Republicans opposed that part of the resolution condemning the court of inquiry which sat in the Schley case and refused to vote when the roll was called. All of the 70 Democrats present voted for it.

TO KEEP OUT CHINESE

Bill Prepared by Pacific Statesmen Introduced in the Senate.

HOAR RECALLED BOER RESOLUTION.

Hale Attacked the Bill to Make New Cabinet Department for Commerce. Tillman Hints at Scandal in Transport Service.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Upon request of Mr. Hoar, the resolution adopted Wednesday in reference to supplies sent to Boers in Bermuda was recalled, the senator saying the United States had not adopted the particular provision of The Hague treaty covering this question. The resolution went to the foreign relations committee for investigation.

Senator Mitchell (Ore.) introduced a bill prepared by the Pacific coast senators and representatives for Chinese exclusion. He said the men who prepared it agreed to its provisions generally, but reserved the right to offer amendments when the bill is under consideration.

The house concurrent resolution for a memorial service, Feb. 27, in honor of the late William McKinley was adopted.

Senator Vest introduced a resolution appropriating $2,500 for a marble bust of the late Senator Daniel W. Voorhees of Indiana, "as a suitable recognition of the unselfish and valuable services rendered by him in connection with the erection of the Congressional Library, and that the bust shall be placed in that building."

Mr. Mallory (Fla.) and Mr. Clay (Ga.) declared they had been misrepresented by a New York paper, which said they favored the Panama canal. Both said they were for the Nicaragua canal route.

A bill was presented and passed providing that persons living in Porto Rico and the Philippines may execute deeds for property in the District of Columbia and the territories of the United States.

Senator Nelson called up his bill to establish a department of commerce and a number of minor amendments were offered and adopted.

Mr. Hale sharply criticized the department of commerce bill, saying it proposed to strip other departments of important bureaus and make the new department the most important in the cabinet. He made reference to "navies" in the various departments. Mr. Tillman said he would like to include one more navy in the list, "That's the army transport service. It's assuming great proportions, and about it I have heard some scandal." Without action the discussion on the commerce bill went over.

The senate passed the house resolution appropriating $90,000 to pay the expense of the government exhibit at the Charleston exposition.

The senate, on motion of Mr. Hale, adjourned till Monday.

Wealthy Men Have Forgotten.

Cleveland, Jan. 16.—Colonel Myron T. Herrick, treasurer of the McKinley Memorial association and president of the American Bankers' association, said: "There have been practically no contributions to the McKinley memorial fund from the men of wealth, or those at the head of our great commercial and manufacturing institutions, much to my surprise. They have left the building of this memorial to the wage-earners in factories, shops and stores, and to the school children, who are not faltering in this movement to express their love and confidence in William McKinley. Those men of means who should contribute seem to have delayed or forgotten."

Pickle Famine Threatened.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—The Western Pickle Packers' association, including representatives from Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Iowa and Missouri, is considering an advance in price. It is declared that there might be a pickle famine before next summer. The crop of cucumbers was 500,000 bushels below the average, which meant that pickle packers would be 200,000 barrels short. The new crop will not be ready until October.

Iowa's New Governor.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 16.—The inauguration of Governor A. B. Cummins took place at 2:30 p. m. with imposing ceremonies at the Auditorium and in the presence of 5,000 people. The governor delivered an inaugural address. At the conclusion the governor was escorted by the members of the legislature in carriages to the statehouse, where he formally took charge of the office.

Edinboro (Pa.) Blaze.

Erie, Pa., Jan. 16.—The total loss by the fire at Edinboro is about $35,000. With the help of the Erie fire department the conflagration was brought under control.

IF THE Legislature will pass a law compelling counties that call out the State militia to aid in quelling mobs to pay the cost of the troops while they are thus engaged, it will have a tendency to put a check on the lawless spirit that has been rampant of late years. The expense of these troops should not be saddled upon other counties.

A BILL is pending in the Legislature for the protection of sheep raisers against the raids of worthless dogs. Two items appear in to-day's issue telling of the killing and crippling of over fifty sheep in one neighborhood the past week. The Legislators will not be doing their duty if they fail to pass a law of some kind to give sheep raisers the protection they should have.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Senator Harris to-day introduced in the Senate a bill providing for the purchase by the Government of the existing telegraph lines, with the view of operating them as a department of the Government.

Owners of telegraph stock evidently see the "handwriting on the wall" and have inaugurated a move to unload on "Uncle Sam." The telephone business has been cutting in heavily on the telegraph lines in recent years, and Marconi's wireless system of sending messages has evidently got the old line people on the toboggan. The editor of the BULLETIN expressed his belief some days ago that there would soon be an attempt made to unload the telegraph lines on the Government.

FRIENDS interested in the political promotion of our fellow-townsmen, Congressman Kehoe, feel that Speaker Henderson has done much toward assuaging their disappointment at his failure to put Mr. Kehoe on the Rivers and Harbors Committee by his marked recognition of the latter's worth in other ways. Mr. Kehoe has just been named as a member of the Visiting Committee of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, which honor places him as the only representative of the House minority on that committee. Dispatches from Washington indicate that this honor came both unsolicited and unexpected. He has also been placed on the McKinley Memorial Committee as the representative of the State of Kentucky. Mr. Kehoe is to be congratulated upon his success. His friends appreciate the disposition of Speaker Henderson to recognize the ability of our Congressman. They, however, are not surprised at this, for Mr. Henderson's ripe and accurate judgment enables him to recognize worth whenever it appears upon the floor of the House, and his Americanism is of the type that puts him in sympathy with vigorous young manhood in which ever party it may be found. With clean and capable Republicans like Mr. Henderson and Democrats like Mr. Kehoe to guard our national interests, the destiny of our country is safe.

STRIKING RESEMBLANCE.

Representatives Kehoe of Kentucky and Williams of Illinois Are Almost Constantly Taken for Each Other.

[Washington, D. C., Times.]

Two members of the House who are constantly taken for each other are Representatives Williams, of Illinois, and Kehoe, of Kentucky. They are about the same height, tip the scales within a few pounds of each other, have dark complexions, black hair, smooth faces and talk very much alike. On Thursday during the consideration of the Nicaragua Canal bill Mr. Kehoe jumped into the debate and made his maiden speech. It was a capital effort and he was warmly congratulated at the time. Nearly all day yesterday he was greeted with this: "Williams, I want to congratulate you. I heard your speech and it was all right. Give me an order for a few copies, I want to send them home."

"Much obliged for your compliment," Kehoe would say, "but I am not Williams. My name is Kehoe, and I am from the Ninth Kentucky district. And I made the speech, not my friend Williams."

Congressman Kehoe has introduced bills for the relief of Jeremiah Hunt, James C. Brickley and St. Andrew's Lodge No. 18, Free and Accepted Masons, of Cynthiana.

A Fall in FLANNLES.

A day of money losing—maybe several days of it, that depends on your promptness. The store that maintains leadership must provide lavishly, and lavishment means enough and something to spare. This spare lot we make into pre-eminent bargains for you—at a loss of profit to be sure, often at a loss of actual money paid for the goods. But that's the cost of leadership. Exquisite French Flannels in handsome patterns, 50c. and 75c. qualities for 35c. a yard.

BLANKETS!

We pride ourselves on carrying the best white Blanket in the market, here or elsewhere, for $5. It's a $7 Blanket made of pure, washed, California wool, weighs six pounds and is 11-4 size. We don't make any money on this Blanket, nor lose any, just come out even—unless you call it money made to advertise ourselves, so wisely and well with such a leader. It will make our blanket fame and be your blanket satisfaction, if you buy a pair. Other blanket reductions like this:

$5 00 BLANKETS $3.50. $3.00 BLANKETS $1.75.
 $4 00 BLANKETS $2.75. $2.50 BLANKETS $1.50.
 $1 50 BLANKETS $1.00.

D. HUNT & SON

WASHABLE CHAMOIS

GLOVES.

These gloves are in perfect condition, except they were soiled by use in window decoration. This is a defect easily remedied by soap and water. The sizes are 5½ to 7. Colors, cream and white. Two clasp, stitched back. The gloves are exactly as represented—perfect in every way, except for the dust, which is no real hurt. If you'll take the gloves we'll give you four-fifths of the original price and the dust. Two months ago we were selling them for 75c., now they are 15c.

NEWS FROM FRANKFORT.

Many More Bills Introduced in the Legislature Wednesday—Some of the Most Important.

The following new bills were introduced in the Legislature Wednesday: Abolishing the right of woman to vote for members of Board of Education, but authorizing women to become members of said board.

To prohibit the use of impure substances in the manufacture of tobacco.

Providing for an official stenographer in all Circuit Court districts.

Providing that all persons condemned to be executed shall be hanged in the penitentiary at Frankfort.

Providing for a fuller assessment of certain taxable property by requiring the Assessor to ask each person as to notes of his held by other persons.

To amend the law governing the branding and drifting of trees, logs and other timber by increasing the fees of those who catch or take up such timber.

Providing that a jury may find a general or a general and a separate-general verdict, or a special verdict, with or without the former two.

A Congressional redistricting bill.

To amend the anti-trust law in order to more fully prohibit pools, trusts, monopolies and conspiracies to control prices of articles.

To repeal the act passed in 1892 to regulate the sale of leaf tobacco.

The Committee of Kentucky newspaper owners and editors, with John H. Westover as Chairman, met Wednesday and agreed on a bill regulating official advertising and naming the price for decretal and execution sales at 50 cents for each insertion. Senator Byron introduced the bill in the Senate Thursday.

At Thursday's session the following were among the bills introduced:

Providing that a fiduciary required to give bond shall pay for it as an expense of the trust.

To prevent the killing of rabbits between January 1st and November 15th of each year, except by an owner of land to prevent injury to his trees.

Placing the police of towns of the sixth class under the direction and control of the Town Marshal.

Regulating the toll of millers for grinding flour.

Changing the time of final payment of taxes to the Sheriff to avoid penalty from January to March of each year.

To amend Section 181 of Constitution so as to admit ad valorem taxes in cities.

Extending the time for killing quail from January 1st to February 1st.

To refund to State banks difference between the regular tax rate of 47½ cents and the 75 cents paid under the Hewitt law.

Creating a Board of Charitable Institution Commissioners. The commissioners are provided for at annual salary of $2,000 each, the Legislature to elect them.

The opening hour of the House session Thursday was taken up with a discussion of the Weatherford resolution recognizing Admiral Schley as the hero of Santiago, condemning the Court of Inquiry and inviting Schley to address the Assembly. The Republican side of the body opposed the preamble of the resolution condemning the majority members of the Court of Inquiry. Representatives Parker and Worthington spoke against its adoption and Barton and Moore in favor of it. The House adopted the resolution by vote of 70 to 0.

The Speaker appointed Representatives Weatherford, Wells and Averick a committee to notify Admiral Schley of the action of the House and to wait on him at Louisville and invite him to address the Assembly.

See "A Run on the Bank" To-night.

In the past few seasons there has been a revelation in the presentation of farce comedy. Hoyt happily conceived the idea of sketching a plot, a mere framework, embracing the cream of vaudeville and burlesque artists, and presenting them in first-class houses. The result was magical and his fortune was assured. But beyond this it educated the public and elevated the standard of farce comedy so it at present occupies a high place in the public mind. The present off-spring embraces Pusey and St. John, two of the cleverest farce comedy comedians on the stage to-day in the roles of Percy and Harold in that clever conceit, "A Run on the Bank." They are surrounded by a company of clever comedians and pretty girls, and will occupy the stage of the opera house to-night. Seats on sale at Nelson's.

...The... Home Store!

Don't blame us, but blame those laggards who have in the past few days besieged us to continue our 20 per cent. sale a few days longer to give them an opportunity to avail themselves of securing the best Clothing in the country at our CUT PRICE. Well, "Barkis is willing." In preparing our stock to invoice it, like most merchants we discover

We Have Lots of Goods Left That We Prefer to Sell at the Cut Price To Carrying Them Over.

We are quite "long" on long Ulsters and Fullmore Overcoats that we will sell at "short" prices. The weather is right for you and us. You need the Overcoat, we need the money. Our 20 per cent. off on Suits and Overcoats and 10 per cent. off on Stetson Hats and Hanan Shoes will continue until we are through taking account of stock.

HAUSS' INVENTION.

A Slot Machine to Regulate the Use of Water and Electric Lights.

(Georgetown (Ky.) Times.)

The Georgetown Water, Gas, Electric & Power Company sets before the people in this issue a plan whereby every house no matter how large or small may have electric lights and water, and can buy them in any sum from one cent's worth up. The scheme by which this unique way of getting one's light and water is made possible is a penny-in-the-slot machine, the invention of Mr. D. J. Hauss, General Manager of the company.

It is "figured out particularly for the benefit of the occupants of small homes," and will no doubt be appreciated by persons who are not able to pay for a great amount of light or water. The company only asks that it can secure a sufficient number of subscribers in each section to insure itself against loss.

The convenience of the idea will at once suggest itself to families whose washing is done at home. As the service will enable patrons of the company to get water and light at a very small cost there seems to be no reason why it should not prove a great success.

The company feels sure the people will want the same as soon as they know how cheap these conveniences are.

FRANK OWENS HARDWARE COMPANY

SLOW BUT SURE

Is Uncle Sam, as Proven by the Tracing of This Check That Was Cashed by a Maysville Woman.

[Enquirer.]

Mrs. Anna Irvin, of Rectorville, Ky., received a New Year's gift from Uncle Sam Wednesday, the sum of $5.23. It was sent her by the Cincinnati postoffice department, and she had been expecting it for about two years. The mailing of a check to her for that amount, the loss of the letter and its recovery by the Postoffice Inspectors, forms an interesting story and proves that Uncle Sam, though slow, is sure. Mrs. Irvin is the wife of Thomas Irvin, who is a seaman in the British navy. One of the rules is that in the event of sickness or disability from any cause while in the service, out of a fund, which is accumulated for that purpose and in the custody of any officer of the navy, is paid a certain benefit. Part of it is sent direct to the wife or mother of the disabled seaman.

Irvin having become disabled made application for the benefit while unfit for sea duty. It was allowed him. The sum of $5.23 of the amount so allowed was payable to the wife. This amount was mailed to her in the form of a check issued by the British Consul, then stationed at Philadelphia. The check not being received by her as expected, she communicated with the British Consul, who informed her that the letter had been mailed to her a long time previous. The loss of the letter and check was reported to the department at Washington, D. C., by the British official and the matter was sent to the Cincinnati division for investigation. While at work on the case the check was returned to the original maker with the endorsement of having been paid to Anna Irvin. Her name was indorsed, together with those of several other persons through whose hands it had passed. Mrs. Irvin denied having indorsed the check for the reason that it had never been received by her.

To Postoffice Inspector Salmon fell the task of tracing the indorsers of the check, among whom was a well known business man of Maysville, Ky. He was seen, but did not remember from whom he had received it. A search was then made for the Anna Irvin who had signed it. While sitting in the hotel at Maysville one day Inspector Salmon overheard the proprietor tell one of the bell boys to call Anna Irvin into the office. It then dawned on him that she was the person he had looked for so long. When Anna Irvin arrived in the office she proved to be the colored cook employed at the hotel, and when confronted by the Inspector with the check, admitted that she had called at the postoffice for her mail one day about a year previous. Giving her right name as Anna Irvin she received the letter in which was inclosed the check. Being overjoyed at receiving so much money from some source unknown to her, she cashed the check and had a good time.

It soon developed that the British official, when mailing the letter, had misdirected it, causing it to be sent to Maysville instead of Rectorville. The return of the money was demanded from the parties through whose hands the check had passed. Being returned, the money was sent to Mrs. Anna Irvin, who, after two years, is now in receipt of the $5.23. As all the parties to the transaction were innocent of any wrong-doing the matter will be let drop by Uncle Sam.

The girl is the mother of the woman just as "the boy is the father of the man." The period when the womanly functions begin is one to be carefully watched and considered. Irregularity or derangement at this time may be promptly met and cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. But neglect at this critical period may entail years of future suffering. "Favorite Prescription" acts directly upon the womanly organs giving them perfect vigor and abundant vitality. It removes the obstructions to health and happiness, and delivers womanhood from the cruel bondage of "female weakness."

You pay the postage. Dr. Pierce gives you the book. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1,008 pages, 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to defray cost of mailing only.
